

Spring 2019A Cohort Information Sheet

Commitments

Churches that are accepted into the program will name two leaders who will lead The Colossian Way experience. The leaders commit to:

- Attend a training retreat, held October 11-13, 2018 in Grand Rapids, MI
- Gather a diverse, intergenerational group of 10-12 participants for The Colossian Way small group experience
- Lead the small group through ten 90-minute meetings over a set schedule from February - May 2019
- Meet with fellow TCW leaders and coaches during the experience on February 26, April 9, and May 21, 2019
- Leaders of The Colossian Way will meet individually with coaches throughout the experience

Next Steps

1. Apply online at www.colossianforum.org/events. Please fill out one application per church
2. You'll receive an email from us within two weeks of submitting your application regarding the church's acceptance into The Colossian Way
3. Pray and discern which leaders in your church might lead The Colossian Way

Roles and Other Details

Colossian Way Leaders (two per small group): gather and lead a diverse, intergenerational small group of Christians as you lean together into messy questions, pursuing truth and love together, and looking to see God's presence and activity among the group

Coaches: accompany The Colossian Way leaders through the experience, cultivating focus and being an encouragement along the way. Each leader will have a coach and meet with them individually during the experience

Trainers: teach leaders the methods of The Colossian Way and help them live out the goals of TCW as leaders

Topics for this Cohort

This cohort will cover human sexuality and human origins.
